

THE STOREBRO FLEET

STOREBRO

TRUE SCANDINAVIAN

Storebro - Scandinavian boatbuilding tradition for more than 50 years. Our "Vindö" was introduced in 1951.

For more than 50 years, Storebro has nurtured and developed the Scandinavian boat building tradition.

We have refined our craftsmanship, while making sure to exploit the many advantages offered by new technology.

We are convinced that exceptional quality is the product of innovation and loyalty to ideals.

Which is why seaworthiness, functional design and comfort come first.

That is what makes our boats True Scandinavian.

STOREBRO J34/S34

This is a sporty weekender with a wealth of elegant and functional solutions, designed to make life afloat as simple and as comfortable as possible, without compromising Storebro's stringent demands on sea-worthiness and safety onboard. But the Storebro J34/S34 offers more than just an exciting design. You can also choose the means of propulsion. The S34 has the more conventional stern propeller drive while the J34 is equipped with twin water jet.
